AMUSEMENTS

BUTLER THEATER

At the Butler this evening another interesting program will be shown, as follows: "Tollate Stains," a Kalem drama; a Lubin split-reel showing "Smiles of Fortune," a comedy, and "The Tobacco Industry," educational; "Conscience and the Temptress," a Selig drama, and a Vitagraph split-reel showing "The Baby Show" and "His Second Wife." In a snowstorm he asks the girl to marry him. After the marriage he thinks he can never care for his second wife and he neglects her. This arouses her resentment and through her cold, indifferent attitude she wins his love. "His Second Wife" is a very interesting drama. It is intensely thrilling in some parts and in scenic beauty is hard to beat. Tomorrow Pathe Weekly and other interesting pictures. Tonight, "Quo Vadis" at the Nevada. There is a new curtain and machine at this theater. The price of admission with a reserved seat is 50 cents.

PASTIME THEATER

Manager Warren is well pleased with the success of his departure in high class pictures as demonstrated by the overflow houses that greeted each performance of Mrs. Fiske in "Tess of the D'Urbervilles." These specialties will be continued every Monday and Tuesday, matinee and evening, at the regular price of admission. The Pastime is not going to make any advance or change in its resolution to give the people of Tonopah the best there is in the market at popular prices. The program for this evening includes "The Last of Black Bart," "A Peaceable Pupil," "A Rebellious Pupil" and the Weekly Mutual, which covers the universe.

Addressed to the Woman Who Desires a Perfect Figure

It is a melancholy reflection that without a perfect figure even the attributes of the mind are forgotten, and mere facial beauty is as the half of a pair of scissors. So much depends upon the figure—carriage and poise. And so much of the figure depends upon the corset, for it is the province of the corset to accentuate the natural beauties of the form, or to atone for their absence.

Now there are many corsets on the market that are good, a few that are very good, and some FEW that are admittedly as perfect as the science of corsetry can produce. One of the latter is the justly celebrated

MODART FRONT LACED CORSET

Which, in our opinion, is beyond question the best corset made in the front-laced variety. Aside from the consideration of current modes, to which the latest MODART models conform, the very principle upon which this beautiful corset is designed is calculated to go far toward giving one a perfect figure.

We refer you to its long, shapely and absolutely uninterrupted back line, which is the chief essential to a perfect figure. It is this feature, together with a special boning process, which makes the MODART one of the most ideal corsets a woman can buy.

A number of models carried in stock and sold at regular advertised manufacturers' prices.
